To be eligible for the 2009 ASGA Junior Player of the Year (Boys or Girls), you MUST participate in either the ASGA Junior Stroke Play or ASGA Junior Match Play. You can earn points in the USGA Junior Boys Qualifying, USGA National Junior or ILAJC National Championship. Otherwise, only your nine (9) best finishes will count. Note: The USGA Junior Girls Qualifying is not held in Arkansas every year and is therefore not an "ASGA Junior Girl Designated" tournament (points earned in national –see back).
